Annexure-I

Statement of Article of Charge framed against Sri K. Venu Krishna former Agril. Officer, Amaravathi, Guntur District & Presently working as D.D.A (ATMA) O/o Director, SAMETI, Hyderabad.

Article of Charge:- “that the said Sri K. Venukirhsna , while working as Agril. Officer, Amaravathi, Guntur District had exhibited slack supervision in the distribution of inputs to the farmers. There was deviation of the guidelines issued by the J.D.A., Guntur and committed procedural irregularities in the distribution of inputs to the farmers. This shows that he was not devoted to duty and negligent in the discharge of his official duties which attracts violation of Rule-3 of APSCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.”.

Basis of Charge:- The Collector & District Magistrate, Guntur had informed the Commr. & Director of Agriculture, Hyderabad, through D.O.No.601/2001, Dt:21-3-01 that the A.P. Ryti Coolisangham, Tadikonda had submitted a representation stating that improper distribution took place in the distribution of inputs to the affected farmers by the Tadikonda Agricultural Market Committee, Tadikonda in Thadikonda division. There-upon the Dy. Director of Social Welfare Dept., Guntur was appointed as Enquiry Officer to enquire into the matter and to send a detailed report. The Enquiry Officer had conducted the preliminary enquiry into the matter and submitted a detailed Enquiry Report.

In his enquiry report the Deputy Director of Social Welfare and E.O has stated that the amount collected under non-subsidy portion was not remitted in to the Government Account.

The Agril. Officers of three Mandals have to hand-over the completed bill books along with the Non-Subsidy amount collected from the farmers to the Agricultural Market Committee, Tadikonda. And the staff of A.M.C., after tallying the amount have to remit the amount in S.B. Account on the next day. It was informed that the amount pertaining to non-subsidy portion of inputs distributed should have been remitted in the bank at least by 11-10-2000 since there were Dasara Holidays during that period. But, the amounts were remitted in the bank the up to 25-11-2000. Because of delay in remitting the amount in the bank the following doubts are arose.

- 1) Since, the bills are raised on the Bogus farmers the amount could not be collected immediately and handed-over to the A.M.C., Tadikonda for remittance.
- 2) The A.M.C., staff who have collected the Non-Subsidy amount might have utilized the amount to their personal purposes.
- 3) Since the prominent / influenced persons have taken the fertilizers in bulk, they might not be in a position to pay the huge amounts under non-subsidy portion at a time in the counters at the time of receiving bills and might have paid to Agril. Officers in installments.
- 4) The A.M.C. Higher Officials & Non-Officials might have written the bill books to their favours without collecting money towards Non-subsidy portion and lifted the Fertilizer stocks from the Godown showing the bill receipts to stores in charge.

That the said Sri K. Venu Krishna former Agril. Officer, Amaravathi, Guntur District & Presently working as D.D.A (ATMA) O/o Director, SAMETI, Hyderabad by his slack supervision and negligence in discharging his official duties has given scope for the above lapses which attracts the violation of Rule-3 of APSCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964. Hence, the charge.
